NWFCU Foundation Raises Money for a “Night of Magic” with 4th Annual Neon Night Glow Run

Herndon, Va. (July 24, 2018) – The NWFCU Foundation recently held its 4th annual Neon Night Glow Run, raising money for their 9th annual Night of Magic, which the NWFCU Foundation hosts at Inova Children’s Hospital. There were 250 participants in this year’s race, with proceeds going towards the annual event, which creates a memorable evening of fun for critically ill children and their families.

“This year’s Neon Night Glow Run was a tremendous success, grossing over $13,000,” said Executive Director of the NWFCU Foundation, Alexzandra Shade. “We appreciate our community sponsors and race participants for coming together to support our program with Inova Children’s Hospital and the children receiving treatment there.”
